Planning Commission Is Approved By Borough Council--Members Appointed

First Step Toward Adding Dessert to "Corned-Beef-and-Cabbage" Rule

GROUP IS NON-PARTISAN

Narberth's Borough Council Monday night passed an ordinance creating a planning commission. And Burgess Frank A. Schrepfer appointed its five members:

Ralph S. Dunne, Shirley road, business leader and former Civic Association president, for a five-year term.

Walter R. O'Sullivan, 85 Windsor avenue, civil engineer, four years.

William H. Durbin, Woodbine avenue, realtor and Rotary Club president, three years.

Bert G. Simpson, 201 Woodside, former Narberth Players' president and a Bell Telephone planning engineer, two years.

John J. Cabrey, Narberth and Windsor avenues, textile manufacturer and leading citizen, one year.

In a town predominantly Republican, one of the commission's members, Mr. O'Sullivan, is a well-known Democrat, and Mr. Cabrey prefers to be considered a mugwump.

September 29, 1936, Mr. Cabrey told the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club: "We have a corned-beef-and-cabbage governing body—good on routine, but not interested in dessert. The outstanding civic improvements (such as development of a swamp into Narberth's celebrated Community Playground, in which Mr. Cabrey was a prime mover) have been the result of the efforts of the citizens. Due to our independent government there are many additional opportunities for improvement which should be looked into."

And he mentioned a new station on the south side, replacement of the unsightly structure on the north side, and a swimming pool for the playground.

Shortly after the Rotary talk, John

R. Hall, then Burgess, appointed a Public Improvement Committee to make suggestions. It had Walter A. Fox (now a Borough Councilman) as chairman, Ralph Dunne as secretary, treasurer, and four other members, Robert C. Collins, T. Noel Butler, Dr. O. J. Snyder, Frank Schrepfer and J. J. Cabrey.

Upon Mr. Schrepfer's election to Borough Council, and thence to Burgess, publicity was set in motion in Our Town, January 14 of this year, when Mr. Dunne presented a letter to Borough Council, asking it to create a Planning Commission with authority to spend money for a comprehensive plan—authority which his committee had previously lacked.

Councilman Roland Fleer accordingly reported favorably the Planning Ordinance this week, and it was rushed through on all three required readings, by suspending the rules that require only two readings at one meeting.

Night Parking

Receipts Increase as Administration Starts New Scale of Rates

Narberth has inaugurated a new scale of charges for its night parking facilities.

Motorists are not urged to take advantage of the offer; in fact they are discouraged from so doing.

But in case one decides to park anyhow, the fee is $1 for a first of four, providing he pays promptly and by mail.

Should he appear in court in the hope of getting let off the magistrate's time is taken into consideration—and the penalties vary. For ordinary, all-night parking, $1 fine and $1.50 costs are charged, while for a choice location on Montgomery pike the fee is $2.25 fine plus $2.25 costs, or $4.50 total. A complete schedule no doubt will include other variations for spots near fire plugs or in front of drive ways, etc.

Last year 962 parking violators paid a total of only $325 in fines to her court coffers, but January's total, $57.25, indicates that while the number of parkers should decrease the total in revenue may be doubled.

Twenty-five of the illegal parkers in January were near the pike, where the authorities have been trying to hold down to a minimum parking by young sprouts. Forty-seven motorists parked all night. Not all have paid, yet.

The new Burgess, Frank A. Schrepfer, last month laid down the law, contending if patrolmen hand motorists summons for breaking laws, the authorities should support their judgment.

The Burgess sat as magistrate last month, this month Magistrate Roy I. Gowland is hearing the cases, while Horace T. Smedley will sit as justice of the peace in March.

Leniency was shown by the Burgess in the case of five boys who on Sunday, January 23, made too joyous whoopee on the 300 block of Hampden avenue—the Burgess' back yard.

So to speak. They were fined $3 plus $1 costs apiece—and then sentence was suspended, on condition there would be no further offense.

Public Is Invited to See Baseball Film

at Narberth Legion's Meeting 9:30 P. M. Wednesday: "Batter-Up"

All Main Line residents interested in playing baseball and seeing it played, are invited to the Open House of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, at the Community Building, Windsor avenue, Narberth, next Wednesday.

"Batter-Up," official Big League picture in sound, will be shown here for the first time, by courtesy of Roy Mack, of the A's, who told the Legion's Robert C. Collins Wednesday that he is glad to do a favor to Narberth—"because the borough is a town of championship teams."

Sports writer Ed Pollock says the film is a treat, even better than the 1937 League film. And as part of the evening's entertainment, John Quinn, American League umpire, will give a talk. Especially invited are at two roads and replacement of sanitary sewers

In two other thoroughfares, were indicated by Borough Council Monday night when it approved a 1938 budget of $89,904, which is $15,000 higher than the original $74,902 figure submitted at the January meeting.

It was decided to ask county aid to help finance the street paving, whose total cost, to borough and county, is expected to be nearly ten thousand dollars.

Overshadowed

by the Planning Commission but of considerable importance, were three other acts of Borough Council Monday:

An ordinance was passed (see elsewhere in this issue), on final reading, safeguarding from fire and explosion every home in Narberth, by following Lower Merion's regulations on installation of fuel oil equipment. Responsible for its preparation was Roland Fleer, chairman of the Public Safety Committee.

Burgess Frank Schrepfer appointed the Shade Tree Commission: Dr. Walter Steckbeck (reappointed), and Miss Carol Justice and George C. Moore.

And Recreation Board: Mrs. L. R. Rinehart, school board member, five-year term; Henry P. Carr, councilman, four years; Dr. LeRoy A. King, school board president, three years; Frank J. Dwyer, citizen, two years; and Clarence Raymond Kaerber, citizen, one year. The board is in charge of organized play and school and playground facilities. Its fund is $600 from council and $600 from school board.

Annex for Aged Home

An annex to increase the living quarters at the Home for the Aged, 10 Sabine avenue, Narberth, is being planned by the King's Daughters and Sons, according to Mrs. Pauline M. Muller, chairman of the House Committee.

At present only seven residents may live in the building.

Everything

from sports to chaperons has been mounted by Arthur P. Hubert, member of New York's Academy of Natural Sciences, and Roversford's amateur taxidermist. He told of his work, and showed exciting films on wild life, at the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club meeting in the Narberth Community Building, Wednesday night.

A raffish rifle was won by Charles Chain, Sr., and in addition to refreshments there were door prizes, cakes, presented by Mrs. H. L. Dietrich, well-known riflewoman, who is a member of the club.

The club and its former president, Fire Chief John Miller, were given a plug by KYW last Sunday in its first broadcast of a new sports program. It goes on 1:30 P. M. every Sunday.

Announcement was made that:

Talks will soon be given in the local schools on do's and don'ts in hunting and fishing. This Saturday the county sportsmen will shoot on the Graterford Pen grounds. Narberth's Legion Post will be given the local club's range and facilities Sunday, the 27th, for a shoot whose proceeds will help the Memorial Fund. Nominations of officers are next month.

Coughing

of Boy Arsonist Mother Who Finds Home is Aflame

Mrs. Joseph H. Bissell, 505 Merwyn road, Merion, was awakened last Thursday night by the coughing of her son, Joseph, Jr., 7. When the coughing persisted, Mrs. Bissell, who has been ill and in bed for some time, nevertheless, went to his room to find that it was full of smoke.

After the boy, partially overcome, had been carried from the room, neighbors took Mrs. Bissell into their home and summoned the Narberth Fire Company.

The volunteers confined the blaze to a small portion of the roof. Its cause, according to Mr. Bissell, Eastern representative of the Kirsh Malt Company, is believed due to sparks from the chimney.

"What's Behind

the Electric Button" was the Philadelphia Electric topic

Tuesday of William Ryan, at the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club luncheon. Introduced by his fellow utilitarian, Engle Taylor, the speaker explained how his company generates and distributes power.

The Bala-Cynwyd district, he said, is fed juice from the Manayunk sub-station. Narberth's business section and southwest of it is supplied from the sub-station at Ardmore, whence a new line has just been installed on Elmwood avenue, Narberth.

Explaining how experimentation and improvement is being made, Mr. Ryan said the North Ardmore district

Mulieres'

Chairmen of Committees Named; Covered Dish Luncheon 2:30

Mrs. William J. Ezickson, president of the Mulieres, appointed as chairmen of various committees at the meeting in Elm Hall Monday afternoon:

Membership, Mrs. H. F. Darnes; entertainment, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller; publicity, Mrs. Kenneth M. Bovee; house, Mrs. George Mickle; co-chairman, Mrs. Anna Godsfrey; hostesses, Mrs. J. E. Burrell, Mrs. Charles E. Harnden, Mrs. J. Ben Taylor and Mrs. Conrad Albrecht; purchasing, Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton and Mrs. Frank A. Schrepfer; decorating, Mrs. E. Gilpin and Mrs. Charles K. Haist; and fellowship, Mrs. Charles L. Viguers, Jr.

Following the meeting the members left for Ardmore to see a demonstration of the Bendix Washing Machine. Miss Flora Kurzenkabe was the winner of the door prize, an electric clock for the kitchen.

Quite a number of reservations are being made for the covered dish luncheon to be given by the Mulieres at the Fire Hall on Wednesday, but still more are needed and the chairmen Mrs. Walter R. O'Sullivan and Mrs. H. F. Darnes, will be glad to take them.

World Day of Prayer

A program in keeping with the World Day of Prayer will be held March 4 at 2 P. M. in the Narberth Presbyterian Church with a union service.

Revision of Twp. Zoning Ordinance Held Present Need

Conference on Housing Brings Out Other Township Needs

ASK TRUCK CONTROL

A need for the revision of the present township zoning ordinance was stressed by several representatives at a Housing Conference, sponsored by the Community Health and Civic Association.

The meeting, called by Miss Blanche E. Meeser, chairman of the Housing Committee, was held in Ardmore Monday night. It was attended by representatives of civic and women's organizations in Lower Merion. Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., presided.

Thomas M. Shallcross, speaking for the Merion Civic Association, suggested that changes in the zoning law be brought about in the form of "mild" amendments. In reference to housing, he said that he did not believe crime was traceable to bad housing conditions.

Yellow Peril

Predicted in 1917 by Speaker Before Women's Club

"Just as in 1917 America was called upon to save the world for democracy, in 1917 she will be called upon to save the white civilization from Asiatic control, with the Pacific Ocean as the battle front," said Dr. Morris Wolf, of Girard College, at the meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth, Tuesday afternoon in the Narberth Community building.

"Are we professors right in teaching American boys to hate war when we know that sooner or later they will have to fight men trained to die? That should be taught to boys of aggressive nations, but we would not be allowed. While we look with fright toward Asiatic nations, let us not forget that Ancient Greece, fearing the Asiatics, eagerly accepted help from Macedonia, and was destroyed by her. Russians, descendants of Macedonians, have the potential power to destroy Europe and America both."

Preceding the talk, Mrs. C. A. Farmer gave a splendid plea for aid in the United Campaign, Mrs. Joseph Gurburg announced the next meeting of the group on Literature and International Relations will be held at the home of Mrs. H. A. Frye, with Mrs. E. A. Jamison and Mrs. S. C. Campbell as co-hostess, for dessert luncheon at 1:30. Mrs. Henry F. Deyer will review "An American Dream" and Mrs. C. W. McCarter, Jr., "The Golden Fleece."

Mrs. E. S. Harris, chairman of the Home department, asks that those who took Red Cross sewing home will return it to her at once. The Home department will meet Thursday, February 24, at the home of Mrs. C. J. Bruneel.

Shovels Began

Wednesday, excavating for the $550,000 apartment house at Narberth and Price avenues. The New York Life Insurance Company has advanced $430,000 on a mortgage insured by the F.H.A. to make the medium-rent structure possible. There are to be 114 apartments, renting from $40 to $65.

Education is Topic At Council Meeting

Republican Women Hear Prominent Educators Discuss Present Trends

A resume of some of the 149 educational bills passed during the 1937 session of the State Legislature was given Tuesday by Dr. Carl G. Morneweck, chief of the Child Accounting and Research Bureau of the State Department of Education.

He spoke at the luncheon meeting of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women, at Whitehall, Haverford, at which Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., president, presided.

Stating that the State laws provided the minimum educational requirements and that Montgomery County is way ahead of them in every instance, Dr. Morneweck said, however, there are 34 districts in this State without schools or teachers. He was followed by E. E. Burlingame, president of the Lower Merion

Big Things Lined Up for Residents And Business Folk

—as Boro Business Council's Executives Outline Year's Program

DIRECTORY IS CLOSING

That the Narberth Business Council's membership has jumped from 44 to 135, with expected dues this year of over a thousand dollars, was reported at a dinner meeting of the executive board, held in the Arcadia Restaurant, Wednesday night. President Ralph S. Dunne, who was host, announced that the directory, in which all Council members will be listed, will be ready for distribution by April first.

It will go to the 4500 homes in the Eastern Main Line between Ardmore and City Line. And also to all new residents as they move in. It will contain information about the town that will be helpful to every householder, and it is expected to be so arranged and printed that it will be an asset to the community.

The board authorized Mr. Dunne to engage temporary clerical help until a budget can be approved for permanent assistance, to issue bills, collect dues and assist in getting the directory out.

Next Monday morning was set as the last time for acceptance of listings from these professional and business people who so far are not represented in the directory's classifications.

The board agreed the Council's policy is not that of a civic association; that its function will be to encourage residents of town and township to deal with Narberth Business Council members—merchants and professional men and women—to recognize adequately the arrival of all new families, informing merchants of their names and welcoming them properly; to hold regular monthly meetings for discussion of business subjects that will be helpful to the members, with dinner meetings about once in three months.

Lie Detector

Will be Demonstrated Before Junior Club Next Thursday

Do you always tell the truth? The Lie Detector will be explained and demonstrated by Mr. Van Time when the Junior Women's Community Club meets Thursday evening, February 24, at 8:15 P. M.

Several husbands of members are so interested that they have requested permission to attend the demonstration. Do you suppose they want to check up?

The meeting will be in charge of the Public Welfare Committee, Mrs. Glenn Williams, chairman. Music will be furnished by the Newton Coal Trio, while the hostess for refreshments is Mrs. R. L. McDowell.

St. Valentine's Day saw the bridge tournament off to a flying start. Last week's Blanket Club winner was Dot (Mrs. F. C.) Hutchinson. Katherine Loughlin won the previous week.

The Lincoln's Birthday dance proved a success due to the efforts of the charming hostesses of the evening, Miss Martha Maxwell and Miss Myrtle Schlipf, as well as the loyal support of the members.

Executive Board meeting was held Monday night at the home of the president.

Locking the Door First

Of interest to every civic-minded taxpayer is an editorial in the Wall Street Journal for February 9, especially in view of the final adoption this month, by Borough Council and Township Commission of the 1938 budget and tax rate for the Main Line, East.

New Pennsylvania laws covering municipal budget making and public participation therein are an important step toward sanity in government expenditure. Under these laws, now in effect, the taxpayer will serve not merely as a guinea pig for the experiments of the local spenders; instead, he will have both an opportunity and a moral obligation to participate in the actual formation of his town's budget.

The heart of the Pennsylvania plan is the requirement that the budget of a political subdivision be balanced and that no item in the budget can be paid for unless there is an accompanying appropriation. This is obviously preferable to an inflexible limit to expenditure, since it takes into consideration the varying needs of municipalities. To this is added the requirement that the budget must be available for public inspection from fifteen to twenty days before its adoption. During that time citizens would have an opportunity to object to any of its provisions.

How many will take advantage of this opportunity is problematical, but it is to be hoped that many will. Our legislatures, both state and national, have shown a maddening tendency to pass appropriations, however large, and then refuse to levy the taxes on which the appropriations, at least in part, depend. Now these Pennsylvania reforms are getting close to fundamentals in two ways: first, they give citizens a chance to protest the appropriations which, linked with the objects of expenditure by the mandatory requirements of the law, will tend to reduce spending; second, because of this budget-balancing provision, they carry the test of need directly to the taxpayer who will have an opportunity to say whether or not he believes the particular expenditure warranted.

If this sort of local consciousness of spending-paying were extended to every political subdivision in the nation, its potential effect even on national spending could be of the first importance. It is by placing emphasis on appropriations and taxes when expenditures are planned, which is usually precisely the time when the ultimate bill-payer is relatively indifferent, that spending can be cut. It can never be cut merely by howling over the size of the bill—when it comes in.

Narberth Planning Commission Set Up

The Commissioners will serve without pay, but they will be given funds to provide for detailed surveys, maps, etc.

It is not expected that Narberth's dessert will be prepared immediately, but there is a wholesome revival of the borough's old time unity and pioneering spirit manifest in Borough Council's action; manifest also in the Business Council's sensational comeback, reported elsewhere in this issue.

As OUR TOWN's new publisher said, sounding off in his first issue, November 5, 1937, "Narberth for years has suffered from a sense of inferiority, which we will smother. . . . We will go forward. . . ."

The Legion has changed its meeting date from Mondays to Tuesdays, in order to suit the wishes of many members—but next week's meeting will be Wednesday because that is the only day for months to come, that the film will be available here.

It will be shown at 9:30 P. M., and the public need not leave movie, church and other engagements before that time, in order to be on time. Regular business meeting of the Legion will begin at 8 o'clock.

No long speeches are scheduled but it is planned to have all the charter members possible present as a tribute to the work of Commander Walter Miesen. Over 20 new members recently have joined and it is now hoped that all of the former members will again begin attendance.

This (Friday) night, at 8:15, the Legion will hold a Bingo party in the Green Room of the Arcadia Restaurant. Admission is free and the public is invited.

according to Highway Committee Chairman Walter A. Fox, "has been postponed from year to year, and if in the late summer or early fall the conditions are such that the committee deems the work essential, the funds should be available."

As for the sewers, they are for Wood-side between Narberth and Maple; and Grayling between Wood-bine and Price. Both pipes are to be 8-inches, replacing old 6-inch mains. Recommendation that their cost be added to the new budget, was the final official act of Robert Fellows Wood, retiring as Highway Committee chairman after 12 years of service.

Mr. Fox, his successor as chairman, included in his report: "Superintendent Walter B. Supplee reports a list of about fifty curbs which are in need of repairs. After a survey of these curbs, when spring comes, notices will be served on property owners ordering the repairs."

Other matters concluded by Council:

John A. Miller, made chief by the Narberth Fire Company last week, was approved by Council and sworn in by Burgess Frank Schrepfer. Referred to committee for prompt action was the new fire chief's first recommendation: Most of the hose is 20 years old; it constitutes potential danger to firemen and properties; 350 feet of new hose should be bought at once. Statement was made that equipment is lacking for several men including the new chief, but the fire company itself will buy it.

To Frank B. Fayant Co., lowest bidder ($230.95 cash, plus trade-in of the '37 sedan), contract for the borough's 1938 police car, a coupe.

Sergeant Charles F. Girvin's salary was upped, $2052 to $2280, to agree with the Lower Merion pay scale; and from $1800 to $1920, the pay was boosted for Patrolmen August W. Bailey, George W. Potter and Brady Utz. Officer Merkle, not having served the required two years, was not included.

Building Committee Chairman Richard L. Miller reported for January, 6 permits for $604 of work, including $300 repairs to E. T. Wolf's fire-damaged house on Elm terrace, and $95 for a new window at the King's Daughters house, 10 Sabine.

Finance Committee Chairman Clarence Kaerber had $4962.21 in January bills approved for payment.

Mr. Bickley is a radio technician and inventor, who, with the News of Bala-Cynwyd was instrumental, December, 1936, in preventing a radio station from getting a foothold in Bala, to the detriment of listeners of the Eastern Main Line.

The technicolor comedy sensation "Nothing Sacred," is playing at the Egyptian Monday and Tuesday. Co-starring Carole Lombard and Fredric March.

Jack Oakie, Ida Lupino and John Boles star in "Fight For Your Lady," a comedy which is playing at the Egyptian next Wednesday and Thursday, including Thursday matinee, February 23-24.

"Victoria the Great" Averts War With the United States

Thousands of Americans shouted for war with England in the sixties but Abraham Lincoln stood firmly for peace, admitting that this country had erred. "Victoria the Great," in its last three days at the Suburban Theatre, shows, in scenes replete with interest, how Queen Victoria defied her Prime Minister, and threatened to abdicate rather than permit an insulting dispatch to be sent to Washington, which would inevitably have caused hostilities between Northern States of the United States, and Great Britain over the Trent affair in 1861.

Plot Introduces Unusual Idea

Most musical pictures, in order to justify the music, use a backstage setting. They found a new twist to strike up the band in "Manhattan Merry-Go-Round," Republic musical to open at the Suburban Theatre Tuesday. Leo Carrillo, just a sort of a gangster—nice fellow—forecloses the mortgage on a phonograph record company. The action begins when his henchmen, sent to strong-arm talent, bring in jugglers, magicians and trained dogs. Eventually, Ted Lewis and Cab Calloway and others are hired to make records—and entertainment.

TELEPHONE DETECTIVE!

The 11:43 ground to a stop and a young man jumped to the station platform. In less than an hour his brother was to wed and the youth had traveled far to act as best man. He tipped the Red Cap and strode into a telephone booth to spread the glad tidings of his arrival. But alas, he lacked a bit of information—the name of his brother's hotel. Nor did he know where the wedding was to be. Ah, but he did know the bride's name. Swiftly he thumbed through the Directory. He found the number, but could get no answer. The wedding party had already departed for the church.

It was a sorely perplexed young man who confronted the station telephone attendant with his problem. She took it to heart and began to call all hotels throughout the city. No... no... no. "I'm sorry, no one by that name is registered." Then she got a better idea... the marriage license bureau. There a clerk furnished the name of the clergyman and church. A call revealed that brother was still a bachelor—but not for long. "Hey, taxi!"

A detective could not have done better work than that operator. Such young women, alert, intelligent, eager to serve, help give America the finest, fastest, most reliable telephone service in the world. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

THE FIRESIDE

Holland-Green

The wedding of Mrs. Mary Gertrude Green and Judge J. Burnett Holland was solemnized at the Merion Meeting House 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The bride wore a gown of black rembrandt velvet, trimmed with ermine and a triple string of pearls. Sprays of lilies-of-the-valley were in her hair. Her daughter, Kitty Truedell, who was the only attendant, wore a model of white taffeta, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Mrs. Mahlon Rickert, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black lace and a corsage of orchids. After a wedding trip Judge and Mrs. Holland will be at home at 1605 DeKalb street, Norristown.

Mrs. A. C. Betus, of Brookhurst avenue, entertained at luncheon February 7. The guests were Mrs. Paul Sine, Eastern vice-president of the American Legion; Mrs. Abel Frankenhof, past president of the Bi-County Council; Mrs. Leon Webster Melcher, Mrs. Conrad Albrecht and Mrs. Bert S. Smith. Later they attended the Bala-Cynwyd meeting of the auxiliary of the Thomas D. Vandiver Post, where both Mrs. Sine and Mrs. Frankenhof made interesting addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Merion avenue, who have been spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., returned to Narberth Monday before going to California for three months.

Friends of Mrs. Wills Burrows, of Iona avenue, will be glad to learn that she is recovering from a recent operation.

Mrs. John C. Cotter, of Essex avenue, and her two daughters, June and Joan, returned from the Bryn Mawr Hospital Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Le Roy King, of Shirley road, had as week-end guests, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Elmer Barnes, of Auburn, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Shortess, of Bloomburg, Pa., who attended the wedding of Mrs. Mary Gertrude Green and Judge J. Burnett Holland, of Norristown, on Saturday in the Merion Meeting House. Dr. and Mrs. King also gave a dinner Sunday for the twelve out of town guests.

Mrs. Abel B. Doty, of N. Narberth avenue, entertained at a luncheon Wednesday. The guests were Mrs. Florence Krebs, Miss Emma Steele, Mrs. Frank S. Hart and Mrs. Jonas Smith.

Mrs. H. M. Griest, of Merion avenue, was hostess to her club at bridge Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles B. Stoudt, of Woodside, gave a small luncheon Saturday in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret Jane Stoudt. The guests were members of the school set.

Mr. W. I. Dothard and Mr. Robert L. Dothard, of Haverford avenue, left Monday for a several days' trip to Williamsburg.

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, of Chestnut, will entertain members of the Fortnightly Club at luncheon on Friday, February 25.

Mrs. C. E. McMillan, of Narberth Hall, entertained her club at luncheon and bridge Wednesday. Those present were Mrs. Spencer V. Smith, Mrs. Theodore Fischer, Mrs. Conrad Trowbridge, Mrs. Glenn Williams, Mrs. George Wyckoff, Mrs. Robert Price and Mrs. H. A. Thomson.

Miss Nancy Pollock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pollock, of Avon, will spend the week-end in Wyncote, as the guest of Mrs. William Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manning, of Hampden, had as their guest for several days, Mrs. N. E. Warner, of Milford, Del.

Mrs. May H. Brown, of E. Orange, N. J., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Speck, of Woodbine.

Miss Ruth Woolmington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woolmington, of Narbrook Park, gave a surprise Valentine and farewell party on Saturday in honor of Miss Myra Markle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Markle, of Dudley, who expect to move shortly. The guests were the Misses Eleanor Sharp, Shirley White-side, Jean Engelhart, Shirley Vincent, Jean Russell, Marion Whiting and Betty Raser.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolmington will have as guest this Sunday, Dr. Arthur P. Kelly, of Landenberg, Pa., a well-known scientist, who will be the speaker at the meeting of the Young People's Society at the Presbyterian Church that evening. His topic will be "Evolution."

Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, of Essex, gave a small luncheon and bridge party at her home on Tuesday.

Narberth School

Eight-week tour of classrooms begun by student reporters

The regular weekly auditorium program of the Narberth Public School was February 10. The devotions were led by Scout Harry Middleton. For Boy Scout week, a group of scouts gave a short drill, with Bob Wells leading. Mr. Douglas recently returned from Alaska, spoke about the many exciting experiences he had. On exhibition he had some snowshoes, furs, sandals, a gold mining pan and numerous other things.

This week, there will begin a report on the classroom activities. It will start in the first grades and each week there will be more until all eight grades are completed.

The first grades are divided into two classes, one taught by Miss Meson, and the other by Miss McAuliffe. They both do practically the same work. Since the beginning of the year they have been studying about the family and its members. Then came the helpers such as the milkman, postman, breadman, etc. Next a doll house was made, just doll's size. They did this in order to learn the different pieces of furniture and the rooms.

Now they are in the process of making a house (one room), that is large enough for them to play in. The framework is of wood and the sides and roof of heavy cardboard. They are working very hard on the rugs. They are weaving it on little looms. This year if there is enough time, they will make a radio, and the customary fireplace. The furniture is made of crates, and the dishes or pottery is of clay. This will be worked on for the remainder of the year.

ELEANOR HAYWOOD,

Student Reporter.

On February 14 the boys played an intramural basketball game. Bob Narrigan's team played Bob Hayward's and won, 16-2. Bob Miller's team defeated Victor Heath's, 16-0.

On February 8 the boys' second team played Plymouth. The score was 11-10 in favor of Plymouth.

TIME OUT

It isn't news any more that Lower Merion defeated Norristown Tuesday night at Villanova and that the league is deadlocked with Radnor as the third party in a three-way tie for leadership. The determined style of Lower Merion's play will remain in the minds of those who witnessed the battle for a long time to come. The Norristown team is a first-class outfit this season for the first time in many years and it takes smartness and ability to bring them down to defeat.

Lower Merion's secret of success in this last encounter was to get the jump early enough in the game to get the Eagles pressing. The result was wild shooting and meagre results for Norristown.

Success came to the Maroon after constant pressure both offensively and defensively wore down the opposition. Each member of the winning team shone brightly throughout the rugged battle. Frank Wilson looked more like himself. He shot 5 out of 5 from the free throw line and added a field goal to lead in scoring with 7 points. It was not his scoring, however, that made his work so impressive. His fighting spirit was in evidence throughout the game, something that was lacking in the previous meeting between the two teams. George Paine played his usual aggressive game, although he tired during the second quarter and was falling short in his shots for the hoop. He got his second wind during the second half and was battling at his best in the closing minutes. Hook played a nice game at center. Lacking the stamina that the other members of the team have, the rest given to him for a while during the second and third quarters helped him in the final drive when he dropped in a nice field goal to keep the Norristown rally in bounds. Leonard Jones, who took Hook's place for a while, played an astounding game for a sophomore in a crucial game. He was cool and effective on defense and the caliber of his work was up to the best of the other players. Hackett played one of his best games of the season, and Clarence Griffith looked better than he has for a long time, which makes him the star of the bat-

Norristown's Whalen, star performer throughout the season, was held to four points by Griffith. This one fact took the edge off the sharpness of the visitors' attack.

A drawing will be made for the play-off and I hope that Lower Merion has to play both Radnor and Norristown. It will be a grand thing if they have the opportunity to prove their superiority over the only teams on the schedule that have been able to defeat them.

If Norristown and Radnor meet again the Eagles will hand the Radnors one of their worst defeats of the season. Lower Merion will have more difficulty in a battle with the Wayne boys because of the lack of height among the players. The zone defense cannot cope with clever individual work on a large floor. It looks like we will have another Norristown-Lower Merion battle in a few days.

It would be unfair not to mention the splendid playing of Gen. Rex's Reserves in the preliminary game. The boys—eleven of them—shone like gems throughout the battle. They held Norristown without a field goal until just before the final whistle.

The Junior High Leopards almost clinched the League championship in an afternoon game by defeating Pottstown, 34 to 10. The Orange and Black looked better than in any previous game this season. They go to Wilmington this afternoon to engage Bayard in a return engagement.

There's a man on Anthwyn road who won't say yes. Best place in town to pick up gossip is Hansell's. A state politician gave Our Town a "hot" tip this week, which he picked up from the Harrisburg Telegraph, issue of February 2. The item had originally appeared in Our Town January 28.

A sign has appeared on the bulletin board of the Narberth Station: "Found—black man's umbrella." The Michaelsens' house on the 400 block of Haverford avenue, was occupied by a family for five months until Monday night. Tuesday morning what was left of their belongings was picked up by Wanamakers' and Gimbels' trucks, while employees of the Quaker City Laundry and two dairies watched gloomily. Likewise lamenting the sudden departure are several Narberth business people.

Mrs. Mildred W. Baily announces a pupils' recital this Friday evening at 7.45 at the Lutheran Church. The public is invited.

Dr. Robinson had been a practicing dentist in Shanghai for forty years.

Ah, what a brave woman!

Since time immemorial, long suffering wives have heard—"if you could just cook like my mother"! But it's plain to be seen that the little lady above is thoroughly fed up on the argument... and she has her own pet solution.

Far be it from us to predict, but we are willing to go on record that the modern electric range turns out wonderfully tasting food... that electric cooking is fast, easy... and CHEAP. You can either buy on our easy deferred payment plan—or rent. Ask for particulars on our easy rental plan, offered to our residential electric customers for limited time only. Come in and see the new models!

Here's a Service Station

where we do everything

but bathe babies . .

We're centrally located, so strangers in town—and longtime residents as well—use us for an information bureau:

"Who is a good milkman?"

"Know anyone wants to buy a piano?"

"What coal dealer do you recommend?"

"Do you know a good dentist?"

"Who's a good doctor?"

"What's the best food market in town?"

"How is the show at the Narberth Theatre tonight?"

"Who's a good real estate agent?" . . . "Insurance man?" . . . "Roofers?" . . . "Plumber?"

—And so they go. People ask if there's a State Store in Narberth, and how to join the fire company, and what's the name of the Methodist minister.

We tell them as best we can. And in addition to our information service, we take time to give a good automobile service . . . greasing, washing your car, filling it with good Mobilgas and oil, changing tires . . . anything you'd expect of a modern service station, and more. Try us!

Honors

and achievements continue to visit local residents

Dr. William G. Walton, 417 Anthony road, Merion, was re-elected on the Trustee Board at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry. Dr. Walton, one of the founders of the college, is active in clinical work.

Ira Fox, son of Councilman and Mrs. Walter A. Fox, 31 Narbrook Park, Narberth, has been initiated into Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity at Bucknell University, Lewisburg. Ira is on the staff of the "Student Handbook" and of the "Bucknellian," has won many other honors at Bucknell.

Bill Whiting, another Narberth youth, has won his freshman numerals in basketball and football at Wesleyan University. He is now substitute center on the varsity basketball team, is a member of the Phi Nu Theta fraternity.

Criticism of murals at the Philadelphia Customs House by Collector of the Port A. Raymond Raff led to a defense rally of art critics for the artist, George M. Harding, of Wynnewood. Muralist Harding, it is pointed out, knows his subjects from first hand information having traveled all over the world and, in addition to government work, has been paid good cash to decorate the walls of such hard headed concerns as banks, hotels and theaters.

Miss Elizabeth Nold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Nold, 100 Wynnedale road, Narberth, had an important role in the "stunt" which the freshman class at Wilson College, Chambersburg, presented Monday night in which the class of 1941 envisioned the college community in 1951.

Merion

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Mottern, of Kenilworth road, entertained at a small buffet supper at their home on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Morrison, of Brookway, were the guests of honor at a dinner Tuesday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Holstein de Haven Fox, of Twin Acres, Haverford, before the performance of the Metropolitan Opera Company and later in their box.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott McFadden, of Valley road, will spend the weekend and Washington's Birthday in Atlantic City.

Mrs. J. Medford Brown, of Haywood Circle, will entertain at a luncheon and bridge party on February 28 in honor of Miss Josephine H. Jellott, debutante daughter of Mrs. F. Harold Tunnell, of Germantown.

Mrs. Martin C. Magee, of Valley road, sailed recently on the Roma for a six weeks' Mediterranean cruise.

Wynnewood

Mrs. George Matthews Harding, of Boxwood, will give a bridge party and tea on Saturday afternoon, February 26, in honor of her daughter, Miss Anita M. Harding.

Mrs. Brooks Semple, of Sussex road, entertained at dinner Saturday in honor of her daughter, Miss Peggy Semple, before the meeting of the Haverford Saturday Evening Dancing Class at the Merion Cricket Club.

Miss Marjorie M. Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Trotter Dickson, of Penn road, has had as her guest for several days, Miss Virginia Prophet, daughter of Mrs. Wilfrid E. Jones, of Greenwich, Conn.

Penn Valley

Mrs. Winfield Givens, of Braeburn lane, entertained her club at luncheon and bridge Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Kracer Ferguson, of McClenaghan's Mill road, are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter, Carolyn Kracer Ferguson, on February 1.

Carol Lombard co-starring with Fredric March in "Nothing Sacred" playing at the Egyptian Monday and Tuesday.

In the Mailbag

Dear Editor Elwood:

Permit me, as a reader, interested in civic affairs of his home town, to congratulate you, upon the resuscitation of our printed mouthpiece. I have delayed, until now, to ascertain whether it was just a "flash in the pan."

I am just old-fashioned enough (perhaps) to enjoy and appreciate local news that is written with commendable journalistic quality. In this week's issue I was pleased to find that you featured the attainments of our local nurseryman, Mr. A. E. Wohlert, who, I believe, has been one of few of our leading citizens who has, by his civic interest, backed up in a philanthropic way, some of his ideals.

With my best wishes for your continued efforts toward rejuvenation of our weekly.

Believe me, yours truly,
DR. G. A. SLOAN.

McDuffee—Gibson

The marriage of Miss Ethel Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Easter Gibson, of Cape May, to Dr. Harold Ford McDuffee, of Narberth, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McDuffee, of Hyde Park, Mass., took place Friday, February 4, in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. McDuffee will make their home at 526 Belmont avenue, Cynwyd.

Johnston—Needham

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodbury Needham, of 103 Chestnut avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bettie Morrison Needham, to Mr. Thomas Joseph Johnston, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowen Johnston, of Overbrook, which took place Saturday, February 12, at the Presbyterian Church, Narberth.

Ranger Lodge Reunion Saturday

The Annual Reunion of Ranger Lodge will be held at the Penn Athletic Club on Saturday.

A swim in the pool at 4 P. M. will be followed by a turkey dinner at 6 P. M. Later motion pictures will be shown and there will be music by several radio stars. About 100 will attend.

Around Our Town

Your paper's name has made the stage, and rumor has it that OUR TOWN, with its last-act philosophy that death is a desirable experience, prompted Ex- and Would-Be-Governor Gifford Pinchot's daughter, Rosamund, to commit suicide. Certain it is that Thornton Wilder (the Bridge of San Luis Rey) has in OUR TOWN a Broadway sensation that is different.

And by the way, just how well do you like your paper's name? Now that its circulation is growing in the township, there's many a subscriber who prefers some name that will take in more territory than OUR TOWN. What is your preference? The name should be one that is suitable for the Eastern Main Line—for residents of the town and the township that are among the nation's most wealthy and intelligent and civic-minded and typically American. It might have the Welsh flavor that persists from the early settlers, place-names, such as Merion and Montgomery.

To the five readers who suggest names that the editor considers most appropriate for this expanding weekly paper, subscriptions or one-year renewals will be given in appreciation. And if, after due consideration, one of these names is chosen, its originator will receive a picture of Abraham Lincoln, published by the United States Treasury.

Executive Board of B.C. Junior Club Meets Monday

The Executive Board of the Bala-Cynwyd Junior Woman's Club will meet Monday night at the home of the president, Miss Virginia Hildreth, in Wynnewood.

Mr. Henry Douglas, Dean of Editors of the Public Ledger, will be the guest speaker at the meeting which will be held on Monday evening, March 7.

Narberth Bridge Club

Saturday evening, top score: Mrs. H. L. Strasburger and Mrs. Eugene Zartman; second place, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hutton.

Friday afternoon, February 11, top score: Mrs. C. A. Hammer and Mrs. John Wetzel; second place, Mrs. H. I. McConnell and Miss Anna V. Foley.

Monday evening, February 14, N. and S. top score: Mrs. William C. McKinley and Dr. Mark E. Morgan; second place, Mrs. Arthur Cooney and Charles B. Stoudt; E. and W. top score: Mrs. C. Alfred Peeney and J. H. Harris; second place, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hammer.

Participate in Housing and Zoning Conference

MISS BLANCHE E. MEESER, Chairman of the Housing Committee of the Community Health and Civic Association, who called the meeting Monday night to discuss housing.

WALTER D. FULLER, executive planning for Main Line regulation of truck traffic.

MISS JOAN WOLLASTON, advocated making the township a healthier place in which to live.

Revision of Township Zoning Ordinance Held Present Need

tions; that the ambition to live right was the solution to that problem.

Edward Semens, representing the Wynnewood Civic Association, asked revision of the zoning laws and emphasized the need for increasing the restrictions.

Walter D. Fuller, chairman of the L. M. Planning Commission, revealed that the commission is now engaged in a study of the ordinance with a view to its possible revision.

Mr. Fuller replied that it is impossible to provide low cost housing at rentals people can pay, so it is another form of charity.

E. E. Burlingame, president of the Lower Merion School Board, speaking for the Main Line Kiwanis Club, stressed the need for recreation centers for adult activities. He advised the acquisition of the Bryn Mawr War Memorial grounds and the old Bryn Mawr Polo Grounds for this purpose.

"Slum clearance is not the reformation of the slum dweller," said Dr. Howard Comfort, of Haverford College. "There is no connection between housing conditions and crime in Lower Merion," he added. Those who cause trouble, according to police records, are likely to be transients.

Henry D. Harral, secretary and engineer of the Planning Commission, stated that a shortage of low cost housing in this township does exist, but said the commission does not know the answer to this problem.

State legislation for the control of truck and hauler traffic will be sought by the Planning Commission, if civic organizations will back this appeal. Mr. Fuller announced. At the present time there are no State laws by which the township can restrict traffic to certain roads.

If there is sufficient interest, a campaign will be started to secure legislation in Harrisburg to set up a truck highway system, under which certain roads would be designated as the only ones on which through truck traffic could operate.

Education is Topic at Council Meeting

School Board, who urged that policies be kept out of the schools. "The State furnishes less than 10 per cent of the cost of schools in Lower Merion," he said, "but it is taking over more authority all the time. Local control is vital in communities such as this where we want schools superior to the meagre requirements of the State."

S. E. Downs, superintendent of schools, stated that the only way we can measure new legislation is by asking whether new laws will be an advantage or disadvantage to the children in the schools.

Girl Scouts Will See Skating Pageant

Three hours to skate, a colorful skating pageant in costume put on by members of the Philadelphia Skating Club and Humane Society, and hot dogs and hot chocolate to warm one, are some of the attractions destined to bring success to the skating party put on by the Main Line Committee of Philadelphia Girl Scouts, for Main Line Girl Scouts and their friends in the new rink in Ardmore, tomorrow night.

Skating is from 7 to 10 and there will be an exhibition at 8 and another at 9. In the exhibition will be: a peasant dance by seventeen girls, a gypsy ballet of nineteen girls and nine boys, single numbers by Peggy Lister, Nancy Munn, Kitty Johnson and Edith Whetstone, and dances on ice of the fox trot, the two step and the waltz by members of the Senior Skating Club.
